Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THE LORD HAS BEEN GRACIOUS as He sold both our home and dad's. He also clearly closed doors to have us stay put in Tyler for the time being, so, we are content knowing that His timing is always perfect, never late and never early. Wherever God has us, we will serve Him!

JUAN CONTINUES TO KNOCK ON DOORS here and talks with anyone about Christ where God gives him the opportunity. The Lord also provided for him to go to Paraguay for a month in May/June. While there, the second building was started for the church, a baptism took place, and elders/deacons were recognized for both churches! The Lord has tremendously blessed the work there, and we are so encouraged and thankful! Below are pictures from both churches in Paraguay.

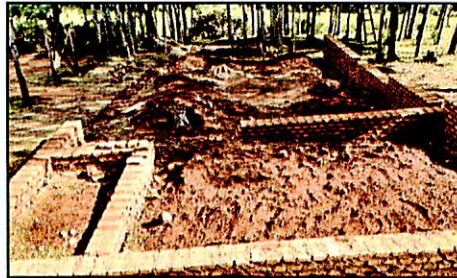

AFTER JUAN'S RETURN, we headed up to see our daughter, Jessica, in New York. On the way, we spent a week in Ohio and were able to see dear brothers and sisters in Christ! Thank you for your continued prayers! We can't begin to express how appreciative we are!

MAY OUR LORD RICHLIY bless and encourage you where He has you!
