Presenting Christ in the City

OAC Boston staff man Eric Briscoe shares that in recent days, the question of why there is evil in this world seems to surface quite often. An elderly gentleman was listening to Eric preach the Gospel in the subways of Boston, and as Eric approached him, he asked why our world is so sinful, disrespectful and evil. Eric thought for a moment, prayed and said that the world has rejected the true and living God and created another to satisfy its evil desires. Actions are a reflection of the character of the idols people serve, which are demons in disguise. Then, while in Minneapolis ministering with co-worker Ken Teeter, Eric shared that a Jewish man told him he was at the point of not believing in God because of what Stalin did to his parents in the Ukraine when he was a boy. He said there must be a God but why such evil? The same day, a young man from Canada said he was not sure there was a God because there is so much evil around. He stayed to talk even though his wife and friends left. When he did leave, he thanked Eric for making sense on why there is a good, holy God. May the Lord give all our staff a discerning heart and wisdom to address such issues on the minds and hearts of people in the open air as they consider the claims of Christ.

Presenting Christ in the Country

The last time David Wilson ministered in Kenya, he shared that although there are many churches in the cities, there are few, if any, in the interior. It's to the unreached people that OAC Kenya goes, in partnership with local churches. In one week, David and his team were able to proclaim the Gospel to over 10,000 in open-air meetings and school assemblies. From the youngest child in elementary school to the oldest in high school, all listened intently as the pure Gospel was preached in school after school. Soon, other schools heard about our program and sent word to request an assembly. A pastor who arranged everything came with the team and wanted to be trained. Now, he is visiting schools and preaching the messages that David gave him on his own sketchboard. Night after night, David and the team held open-air film meetings with crowds up to 1,000 people. Always, the team preached using the sketchboard and black light; people prayed out loud to receive Christ. The people stood for over two hours as they took in the Gospel. It looked like a scene from the book of Acts.

OAC/USA is trusting the Lord to use this ministry to impact 25 cities in America with the Gospel through open-air evangelism and other ministry by means of strategic establishment of branch ministries by the year 2025.
