Dear Praying Partners,

On November 10, 2020, I was at Northeastern University in Boston. The Lord had given me fantastic conversations with many students. Farah, a Muslim, and her Hindu friend were convicted about their sin. They saw God's law exposing their sin like a mirror exposes a dirty face, Farah even concluding, "I will start reading my Bible." Matthew, a student from nearby Berklee School of Music, was Jewish and wanted to have a god he felt comfortable with. He said music was the most important thing in his life. When I said it takes a musician to make music, he understood the correlation between creation and creator and thanked me for taking time with him. Conversations with a basketball player from Montreal and a maintenance worker who had been studying with the JW's concluded with their desire to search the Scriptures. Our team had been out nearly four hours and the quote from Desmond Doss popped into my mind from the movie "Hacksaw Ridge." This movie highlights the rescue efforts of Doss during WWII in Okinawa when he personally rescued over 70 wounded soldiers and prayed to God, "Please Lord, help me get one more." As I repeated this prayer to God, I turned and handed a tract to a student which was entitled "GODISNOWHERE." Tom read the tract both ways, and when I asked him which statement he believed, he said, "This is strange you ask me this, I just came from confession from a Catholic church up the street. I have not been in four years." What an answer to prayer. We discussed the parable of the prodigal son and when the Scriptures said, "He came to himself" in Luke 15:17, I told Tom this was the prodigal's way of saying, "I need to go to confession." We discussed what true repentance means, to Whom sins are confessed, and how they can be forgiven through faith in Jesus Christ's sacrifice and His resurrection. Tom thanked me very much, and he was encouraged to start reading the Bible.

On November 5, 2020, I was at Boston University and had another fantastic day of divine appointments. The day ended with a conversation with Jocelyn. She had determined God was a she and said she called her "mother nature." When I asked her to describe mother nature, she was at a loss of words. I told her God is who He is, and we cannot redefine him no more than I can determine who your parents must be. I shared a personal story with Jocelyn about three of our adopted children. Diane and I both knew a day would come when our children would want to know who the man and woman were who gave them life. It would be natural for this to happen. I told her it is most important to find out who the true and living God is who has given all of us life but He wants us to seek Him just as our children decided to seek out their birth parents. Jocelyn stopped me at this point and said, "This is amazing that you are saying this to me; tomorrow I am meeting my birth father for the first time!" I was very happy for her, and she let me pray for her, and I told her, "Seek after the God of the Bible in the same way, and you will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart. God is awesome!"

We are scheduled to pass papers on our home and purchase another on December 18. The new address is 71 Roller Coaster Rd., Hanson, MA 02341.

Thank you all for your praying and giving.

In God's Grace,

Eric & Diane

RASHID, BOSTON U., BROUGHT UP IN A CATHOLIC / MUSLIM HOME. HE THOUGHT ALL RELIGIONS WORKED TO MAKE PEOPLE BETTER. WHEN I EXPLAINED THAT CHRISTIANITY TEACHES THAT OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS OFFENDS GOD BECAUSE IT REJECTS GOD'S GIFT THROUGH JESUS AS OUR ONLY HOPE, HE WAS SHOCKED BUT AGREED WITH THIS CONCLUSION.

AT NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, THESE TWO STUDENTS WERE AGNOSTICS BUT ENDED UP ADMITTING THAT A GOD HAD TO EXIST. THEY WERE OPEN TO DISCUSS THE GOD OF THE BIBLE.

YOUTH GROUP MEETING WITH A LOCAL CHURCH IN MICHIGAN.

JACOB, NORTHEASTERN, A CATHOLIC RAISED IN ITALY SAW ONLY VIOLENCE AND HYPOCRISY IN RELIGION. HE AGREED VIOLENCE AND HYPOCRISY APPEARED IN ALL AREAS OF LIFE. I SAID THE TRUE GOD HAS CREATED LAWS FOR THE PHYSICAL UNIVERSE AS WELL AS MORAL LAWS FOR RELATIONSHIPS (10 COMMANDMENTS) REVEALING WE ARE ALL EVIL. HE STAYED 20 MINUTES AND TOOK A BIBLE.

THREE STUDENTS FROM BOSTON U. HAD LITTLE KNOWLEDGE OF THE BIBLE BUT WERE VERY INTERESTED IN LEARNING THAT GOD'S LAW WAS LIKE A MIRROR REVEALING THE DIRT (SIN) THAT IS IN EVERYONE'S LIFE.

OAC STAFF REBECCA JEFFERSON AND ZANE DEMPSIE DOING MINISTRY IN JOHNSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA.

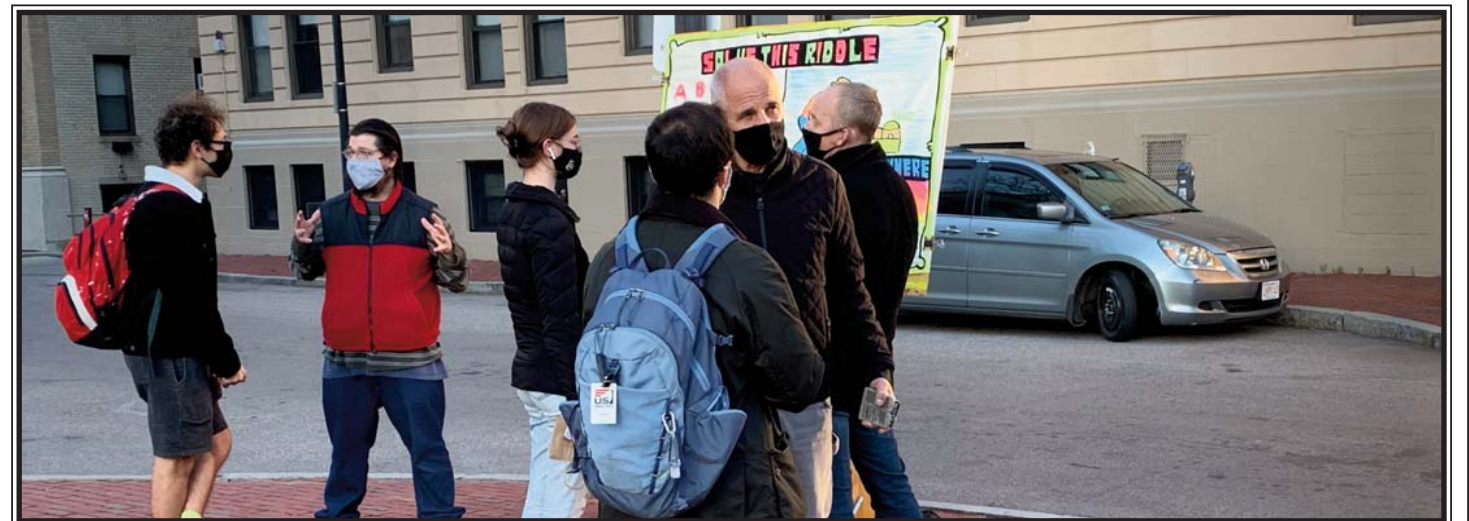

OAC STAFF ED NEIMANN AND ME WITNESSING IN DOWNTOWN PITTSBURGH. BILL, THE MAN I AM TALKING TO, WAS VERY OPEN AND SAID HE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN GOING TO ED'S CHURCH.

MATTHEW, NORTHEASTERN, WAS SINCERE ABOUT TRYING TO PLEASE GOD AND LOVE PEOPLE SO THAT HE COULD ENTER HEAVEN. THE LORD STARTED TO OPEN HIS HEART TO REPENTANCE, FAITH, AND SALVATION AS A GIFT. HE TOOK A BIBLE, THANKED ME FOR TALKING, AND SAID HE WOULD READ IT TO SEE IF THE THINGS WE DISCUSSED WERE TRUE.
