

Stephen and Connie Johnson...Missionaries with Open Air Campaigners in the Iowa/ Illinois area. Presenting Christ by all means everywhere.

Greetings. It sure has been an interesting year for everyone. We did, however, have the opportunity to proclaim the gospel in many venues. Connie is still involved in many Awanas and Quest for Christ after school programs. She uses the sketch board to present various bible stories and gospel messages.

I am still going to the Christian Care mens shelter every month to do a gospel sketch board. Recently, a bible study and Q&A session has been added every other week. Many other local venues have been good for gospel outreaches, including local farmers markets, events, and colleges/high schools.

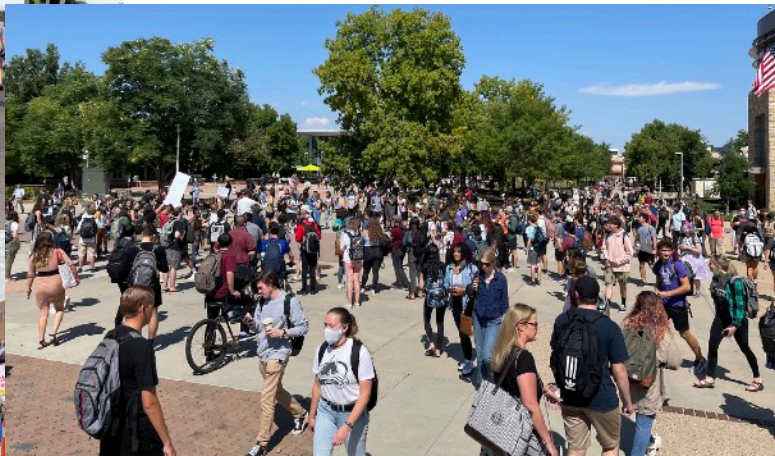

Parades are always a great place to hand out gospel tracts. It is amazing to see how many tracts we can hand out in an hour or two. I had a woman at Augustana college tell me that she tore up a gospel tract last year after reading it, and since then, God saved her.

I also got the opportunity to join with groups and churches this last summer in Colorado for various gospel outreaches. We preached and interacted with big crowds at Colorado State and also in Denver. We also joined with churches in Colorado Springs to have an evangelism booth at the Labor Day Balloon Fest.

The Super Bowl was in Tampa this last year. I joined with a group of almost 100 other people to preach the good news to the huge crowds attending the game and the week long events leading up to the game.

Thanks for your support and prayers.
