

Rebecca Coates' OAC Newsletter

Summer 2023

For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!
1 Cor. 9:16

Hey everyone! It's been a while since I've created a newsletter, and I wanted to show you what God's been doing here in Central PA over this year.

There's been lots of opportunities to speak with college students about Christ over this past year. I even was able to have a great conversation with some Muslim students (bottom left) earlier this year at Penn State.

As the school year ended, our branch shared the Gospel at different venues, like the Bedford Farmer's Market (middle of 2nd column). I've really enjoyed sharing about Jesus there.

I recently had a conversation with three teen boys in Phillipsburg, PA during the town's Heritage Days festival. The boys mostly grew up Catholic. I was able to give them quite a bit to think about in regards to who we are to have faith in and who we are to pray to. God also blessed me with a conversation with a young man at Johnstown's Thunder in the Valley motorcycle event whose mother died some months ago and was angry at God. Please pray for his salvation and comfort.

Thank you so much to our supporters, our friends, who have helped me & Jimmy to get the Gospel out all these years! I can't believe I've been with OAC for 8 years! God has been so good and merciful. If you want to join my team, go to oacusa.org/online-giving for more info. Please keep me and Jimmy in your prayers! Thank you all!!!!
