Phillipsburg's Heritage Festival

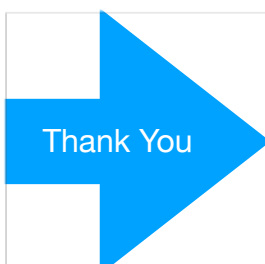

A small festival in the mountains of Central Pennsylvania turned out to be quite a great place to set up the sketchboard. (Below is a picture of me talking to one of the local's as he walked down the sidewalk during the festival and also a picture of a few young people that stopped to listen to the message.) This festival was relatively small, but we had no problems setting up, and we were welcomed by the community. Many people stopped and tried to "Solve the Riddle" and engaged in gospel conversations. This will definitely be a festival that I attend next summer.

Another festival that I attended this summer was the Arts Festival in State College. This was an awesome festival, and thousands of people flooded the streets of State College. Several people from my local church joined me, as we were able to share the gospel with hundreds of individuals.

To the left are two additional locations that have been very good for engaging in conversations throughout the summer. To the far left is a picture from the streets of Bedford. There is a farmer's market every Wednesday that we have been attending frequently that brings many people out for us to share the gospel. The other picture is in front of the courthouse in Hollidaysburg. We have gone here quite often. I praise God for these two great locations.

To all of you who have supported the ministry throughout the last several years and to those of you who have been supporters since the beginning, I would not be able to do the ministry that is occurring without your prayers and support. I cannot express in words how much you all have meant to me and my family over the many years of ministry that God has allowed us to do. I want you to know you are in my prayers, and I value all that God has allowed me to do because of your prayers and support. Be blessed!

Support can be mailed to PO Box D, Nazareth, PA 18064. Please make checks out to Open Air Campaigners with a note included saying it's for Zane & Laurie Dempsie or by visiting oacgive.org All donations are tax deductible.
