

“It is such an encouragement to see how God works in every detail of our trip. Whether it’s which kids come to which club, or which teen is placed where. It was truly incredible to see how each person was impacted by our time there. Seeing the looks on some of the kids faces as they listen so intently to the Gospel is something I will never forget.” -Aria

“Before I went to Boston my spiritual health was in a really bad place. Months before, I was questioning whether I even believed in God anymore—I couldn’t sit through a church service or have a normal conversation about spirituality without bitterness. I was in a better place before Boston, but it was still very new. I still had serious doubts and was extremely shallow with God. Because of this, I was so so so nervous to go to Boston and preach what I had just recently been denying/doubting. When I got there, I was doing better but nothing really happened until Thursday when I preached on Isaac and Abraham at the kids club. This was a monumental moment for me because I could feel the spirit speaking through me—the Spirit I wasn’t even sure I had only weeks prior. I felt so passionate in that moment about God, and I wasn’t sure I’d ever feel that again. I finally felt like a real believer again!! I’m so thankful that I got that lesson because I don’t think I would’ve had the same outcome any other way. And to think, I was so scared when I found out I was going to be teaching that lesson, not knowing how much of an impact it would have on ME, let alone all the kids I got to share it with. God was so good to me on that trip, and I’m so glad I went on it.” -Naomi

Family Consecration week in New Hampshire

PRAYER REQUESTS

Daily: Godly discernment for our entire family, especially for Peyton as she starts college and Kaitlyn and Kyleigh as they start high school.

Sunday: That our worship would cause us to "see God high and lifted up."

Monday: Weekly ministry at Boston University and Northeastern University.

Tuesday: Ministry at Bridgewater State University, which has been resisted greatly by our adversary.

Wednesday: Ministry at UMass Amherst and Roxbury Crossing T station. Three Boston high schools and Roxbury Community College use this transit station, and this is where I met Abdul.

Thursday: Potential start-up ministry at Keene State University in NH with Pastor Tom Brown.

Friday: Ministry with God's Bible College in Cincinnati Sept 30 - Oct 4 with OAC evangelists Brian Harmon and Mike Wilson.

Saturday: Potential trip to Copenhagen in November to visit Levi, Christine and family.

" Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 19:14

Dear Praying Partners,

SUMMER MINISTRY IS PRIMARILY FOCUSED on children's ministry with the local church. June started out with our own precious family in NH with our children and theirs for our annual consecration week. Diane and I are blessed. Seven 5-Day-Clubs were also conducted with seven churches. OAC missionaries Scott and Christine Domont, Brian Harmon, Erin Chervenak, Zane Dempsie, Ed Neimann, Jimmie and Becca Coates, and Chris and Bonnie McKinley brought some of their own children as well as other leaders and many teenagers to reach these neighborhoods and the city of Boston with the Gospel. What follows are some of their testimonies:

“The last evening of the outreach at the Merrimack Courts in Lawrence, we talked to a lot of people, one of these was Karilin. Karilin has five children, two of which went to the 5-Day-Club. She asked my daughter Charlene if she could pick up those two girls to go to church every other Sunday. The girls can't go every Sunday because one Sunday they stay with their mom and the other they stay with their dad. When my daughter agreed, Karilin gave Charlene her phone number. So every other Sunday, Charlene texts Karilin to ask if the girls are going and to tell her at what time she'll be at the apartment to pick them up. Since Karilin works, the grandmother will get them ready for church and Charlene picks them up ten minutes before the service starts. These two girls, Ashley (7) and Alaisha (3) wait anxiously for Sunday to come, Ashley has told Charlene that the Sundays she goes to church are the best days ever. They love going to church and when the service ends they greet everyone enthusiastically before Charlene takes them home to their grandmother.” - Pastor Pablo

“It has been one of the best weeks of my life. It challenges your faith and your trust that God will tell you what to do. It helps you grow closer to God and your fellow believers. I got the opportunity to pray with Emi and she’s now a believer.” -Torri

“The opportunity to share the redemptive story of truth with the kids and adults was very fueling and encouraging for me.” Silas

“I have had the privilege to be on 4 OAC trips, one with each of my four children now. On every trip, I have seen them grow in their love for the Lord and their love for the lost. It is a joy to get to see them learn to speak truth and light into the darkness. And an even greater joy when they get to encounter adults and children who are open to the Gospel. What a great privilege to get to witness God at work!” - Wendy

“When I taught the lesson it was so encouraging to see the way the kids paid attention and were so interested in what was being taught. And it was cool to see when the kids understood something and I could see a light bulb click in their heads. I also loved all the fellowship and encouragement from the whole team.” -Kyleigh

“It was interesting for me to see how everybody I came into contact with was searching for something in their lives and so I feel further equipped and willing to go out into my own community at home to share the truth with others.” - Ella

OAC/USA is trusting the Lord to use this ministry to impact 25 cities in America with the Gospel through open-air evangelism and other ministry by means of strategic establishment of branch ministries by the year 2025.
