Sharing the Gospel with a boy at a Harvest Festival

Hello and Happy Thanksgiving! By the grace of God, I continue to serve the Lord with OAC. August will be 15 years with them--our lives do seem to be passing shadows (Ecc. 6:12). As the weather gets cooler the crowds thin out, but we still have some good interactions with people at our ministry locations. Your support encourages me to "keep on keeping on." May these testimonies be a blessing:

Patriot Day: I shared with two groups of children at a large Christian school about what happened on September 11th in 2001. They were clearly impacted by some of the photos that I shared from that unforgettable day. After the photos, I taught the kids about Joesph from the paint board and how he fully trusted the Lord, even when bad things happened to him.

Temecula Ministry: I visited a supporting church and in addition to thanking the congregation for their help, we had an evangelism outreach. It was great serving with them again.

Stats (since Aug 16th)

I participated in 39 Gospel outreaches, in 16 So-Cal cities and we shared with nearly 1,100 people. Of those, 42 professed Jesus as their Lord and Savior!

"We count people because people count."

Florida Help: I sent some books of John and Romans, written in Arabic and English, to our OAC branch director in Florida. He was stoked to get them and even gave one to his Muslim dentist, who was from Syria!

Local High School: I partnered with a pastor of my home church and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) at a lunchtime outreach. Most of the young people kept us at a distance, but others did come and engage with us. Please pray that even more would next time...

“Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.” - 1st Chronicles 16:34

Home Church Kids: With the main minister out of town, I was blessed to teach the Sunday school class for our 4-6th graders for the first time. We had a great time of learning and interacting. About three months after, a girl from the class showed me a small drawing of the painting that I gave her. Then she recalled the story! I look forward to sharing with them again...

Thanks and Praises:

- Serving more with my home church
- For all who pray and give to support me
- For those who join me to share the Gospel
- For His mercy on our country
- That His word will accomplish His purposes...

Prayer Requests:

- His blessing on a trip to Florida for a US Branch Directors' Conference (2-6 Dec)
- For more faithful team members to serve with me
- Lord's favor on a Mexico mission trip (14-16 Dec)
- For healing for many dealing with sicknesses
- To be strong in the Lord and the power of His might

Harvest Festival: The church fellowship that I've partnered with for a few years changed our ministry location. I was upset and we ministered to about 30% of the amount of people we have in the past, but the Lord still worked. Two faithful Sisters helped me share the Gospel and we led four kids to Christ Jesus!

Physical and Spiritual Needs: I partnered again with Hope on the Streets and got to teach from the Bible prior to the lunch meal. I addressed the wrong interpretations of both Leonardo DaVinci and the recent Paris Olympics regarding the Last Supper and then showed the proper way it should be conducted in accordance to the word of God.

Close Tragedy: Sadly, a young man was shot to death just outside our church building. One of our pastors officiated the memorial service and people responded to the Gospel!

Have a great Christmas and New Years! Lord willing, my next update should be out in February. - To His Praise, frank
P.S. I just got word that the evangelism ministry in Malta is continuing \o/
