OAC Texas Evangelism News

Hey there friends, supporters, and prayer warriors. We hope all of you are doing well!

We are hoping and praying that this year will be a little less stressful and healthier than 2025. Rick had a knee replacement and a nasty little fall on his first post-surgery day back on the street. That set his recovery process back quite a while due to swelling in his new knee, as well as my old one. That little incident was followed up a couple of months later by rotator cuff surgery on his shoulder. Those things made it difficult to haul his equipment around for ministry unless he had someone to help him. I tell you, things are tough when you're a gimp, limping, one-armed is who can't even carry the tools of the trade

So, here is our latest update illustrating some ministry we managed to get done in 2025, along with some that we've accomplished this year, now that he is finally released by the doctor for full action. Enjoy the pics and a BIG THANK YOU for your prayers and support! In addition to some regular local venues, we shared the good news at NOLA Mardi Gras, two Halloween festivals, and our local festival in Cedar Hill. We also took a team to Mississippi where we toured in towns and ministered in daycare centers, county jails, one prison, several substance abuse rehabs, and four churches. We shared the Gospel at our local Christmas outreach and also were part of a team from our church that went to Panama to train bi-vocational pastors and their wives on various topics. We were near the rain forest, so we had a warm but rainy start to our December met and trained some great people.

Prayer Requests

Our Health - we want to stay healthy so that we can serve Him as long as possible.

Our Mothers - Dovie's mom has several health issues, and she's her caretaker four days a week.

My 's mom - she has dementia really bad, and it seems to worsen daily, is is ough disease!

Dovie - She is active in several ministries at our church and between those, her mom, and OAC, there's not a lot of down time for her, and she needs it.

Rick - To focus on the current task and to quote an old dear friend whom I miss dearly; "Keep the main thing the main thing!" Chief Lawson - Pray that I do that at all times!

Praises/Thanks

Our marriage - We celebrated 51 years in January. Thank You, Lord, you are so good to us!

God has blessed us with generous friends and supporters making it possible to do this!

Chris Moore - He's good man, and a good son, and we are proud of Him, but he still doesn't know the Lord. However, his stepson, Landon, became a Christian in 2025 and got baptized a couple of months later. That excites us to no end! Thank You, Jesus! And again, THANK YOU for partnering with us!

Linda, a new church member, and Glenn our missions pastor are sharing with the man in the cap. Linda is bold!

My friend Melissa (white cap), a faithful evangelist, seems to have found her own Goliath at The Harbor in Rockwall.

Michael, our new college pastor and Bo, a long-time church member, speak to a man and give him some literature. The man made a first time profession of faith that day at the festival in Cedar Hill.

Dovie and I worked the kitchen at our church VBS. She was our team leader! I'm going to the security team next year!

Cedar Hill Festival-In this pic there are six volunteers and four conversations happening. A GREAT WAY to train Christians for evangelism!

Our friend Moises is praying with two ladies at AT&T Discovery Center in Dallas.

While I'm preaching at the Halloween Festival in Terrell, Dovie is in the crowd witnessing to the young man in the cap.

This sign belonged to a "professing" Christian group, but I've never seen that done in the name of Christianity. There are a lot of palm readings, fortune tell-ing, tarot card reading, and dream interpretations going on in Jackson Square during the day, but it's not done in the name of Christ!

A volunteer who goes out often with Melissa and her husband, Michael, shares the Gospel at the Harbor with a very interested couple.

My sketchboard is at the ready so I can preach the Gospel to over 100 homeless people at Beautiful Feet Ministries.

At Beautiful Feet Ministry {Church} in Ft. Worth. I go there often to do a devotional with the staff and preach a message to the homeless.

BEAUTIFUL FEET IS A EXCELLENT MINISTRY PLACE TO TAKE A YOUTH OR AN ADULT TEAM TO GET THEM HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE. THEY CAN SPEND A WEEKEND OR A WEEK THERE SERVING THE HOMELESS. AT THE MINISTRY, THEY ALSO TAKE THEM OUT TO EVANGELIZE AND SHARE THEIR FAITH WITH THE HOMELESS ON THE STREETS OF FT. WORTH. THEY ARE ALWAYS LOOKING FOR VOLUNTEERS, TEAM OR NO TEAM, SO CHECK THEM OUT!

Thank you for praying for us and supporting this ministry so faithfully. Your partnership reminds us of the words of Philippians 1:3-5, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you...For your fellowship in the gospel," We are grateful for your encouragement and generosity and thank God for your part in this work.

May God continue to bless you,

Rick & Dovie
